

Excerpts from Unsolicited Reader Letters

“For years I have checked books on positive thinking from our library....I can truthfully say your articles have helped me more than anything I have ever read.”—Wilda Sherron, Paducah, KY

“I have found vicarious advice, guidance, and sometimes peace of mind since having access to your column. Many thanks!”—Margaret Maasch, Fort Pierce, FL

“I have enjoyed these wonderful materials immensely! The writings have really encouraged me and help me cope with life....God bless you for helping all of us people who desperately need encouragement and positive help.”—Judy Arnold, Tucson, AZ

“I wanted to let you know how uplifting your articles are to me. I can't thank you enough for being able to read something positive and uplifting when we read so much bad news that brings us down.”—Jeannie Hartley, Tipton, IN

“I enjoy your articles every week. I have cut out several and put them in a scrap book with the hope that my kids and grandkids will someday read them and apply the lessons to their lives.”—Rosemary Hardy, Paris IL